Moral Stewardship

Susan Johnsen

The Moral Stewardship workshop focuses on the principals' and vice-principals' roles in setting and sustaining a sense of moral purpose or direction with schools. The workshop also provides activities that principals and vice-principals can engage in with their staff to guide the development and implementation of shared values, vision, mission, and goals to support learning and achievement for all students.

Professional Growth Plans

Vivian Rygnestad

The Professional Growth Plans workshop is committed to the development of a professional growth program which promotes self-analysis, encourages a collaborative approach to professional development and places greater responsibility on individuals for their own growth. Each participant will take an active role in a process of growth and development which will enhance the quality of leadership within the school.

Learning Culture and Climate

Jessica Antosz and Don Boyd

The Learning Culture and Climate workshop is designed to help principals and vice-principals sustain a culture and climate to support student and adult learning. The workshop will encourage building collaborative teams, structures and processes that support student learning as well as building leadership capacity of students, staff, family and community. It will focus on how to model and support continuous inquiry and professional learning for self and others in an environment that models and encourages a climate of trust, risk-taking and optimism.

Systems Thinking and Planning

Kathy Barber and Robyn Gray

The Systems Thinking and Planning workshop incorporates systems thinking to strategically plan and manage for student learning and achievement utilizing a variety of effective decisions-making models, developing and maintaining an effective system of communication and direction structures and supporting school operations, facilities management and safety.

Supervision for Learning

Cheryl Dyer

The Supervision for Learning workshop focuses on the principals' and vice-principals' need to create a system and structures for effective supervision focused on instructional and assessment practices that maximize student learning and achievement. Emphasis is placed on monitoring the learning environment, engaging teachers in data collection, analysis and dialogue about student learning and instruction and ensuring the use of appropriate curriculum, learning resources and instructional strategies.

Community Building

Leanna Garner and
Alannah MacPhail

The Community Building workshop focuses on supporting principals and vice-principals in their work to build positive and effective interdependencies between schools, families and the community. The workshop supports:

- ❑ Parents and families as partners in school planning
- ❑ Developing networks to enhance student learning and;
- ❑ Applying knowledge of local and global issues and trends.

Legal Issues

Sharon Cutcliffe, BCPVPA

The Legal Issues workshop covers a gamut of school-based concerns including Charter of Rights issues, School Act, searches, field trips, harassment as well as current and local issues as identified by workshop participants.

Code of Conduct/ Student Discipline

Jean Fraser

The Code of Conduct workshop has been developed by former and current principals and vice-principals along with the BCPVPA. Participants will gain knowledge and understanding of current legislation and policies that pertain to Codes of Conduct. Participants will become familiar with the power and authority of school-based administrators and the concepts of procedural fairness, natural and restorative justice relating to student discipline as well as alternatives to suspension.
